Re: BRYANT, [REDACTED] v. MILHORAT, M.D., et. al.
Our File #: 68860
U.S. District Court/Eastern District Docket #: 1751/2009

Dear April:

As I may have already told you, our law firm will work along with The Locks Law Firm, which has an "of counsel" relationship with our firm, in the litigation of the cases against The Chiari Institute, Dr. Bolognese and Dr. Milhorat. At the present time, three attorneys from The Locks Law Firm have been assigned to work with us. They are Steve Knowlton, Janet Walsh and Andrew Bell. From time to time, they may call you relating to your case.

We are sending you this letter at this time because new rules of professional conduct were placed into effect in New York State on April 1, 2009 requiring that we advise clients in writing of all law firms working on their case and that the attorneys' fee earned in their case may be shared with another law firm.

Please note that any attorneys' fee earned in your case either by way of settlement or jury verdict, may be shared with The Locks Law Firm. The division of the fee will be based upon the amount of work that each firm performs in the case. As such, we presently cannot provide you with the exact manner in which the fee shall be divided. You will, however, be given that information at the conclusion of the case.

Rest assured that the division of the fee between our firm and The Locks Law Firm shall in no way impact the overall attorneys' fee you are charged. In other words, the attorneys' fee will not be higher simply because The Locks Law Firm may assist us in the litigation of your case.
